

Bank Leumi (Luxembourg) S.A. has adhered to the deposit-guarantee scheme of l'Association pour la garantie des dépôts, Luxembourg ("AGDL") together with a large number of banks of the financial centre of Luxembourg. This scheme guarantees to the depositors, pursuant to the provisions set by the law and by the articles of incorporation of the AGDL, (i) in the event of deposits becoming unavailable due to insolvency, the payment of a maximum of € 100.000,- for the aggregate number of accounts and/or deposits with the Bank and (ii) in the event of claims arising out of investment transactions becoming unavailable due to insolvency, the payment of a maximum of € 20.000,- for the aggregate claims arising out of investment transactions towards the Bank. Companies are generally excluded from the benefit of the scheme. The Bank will provide on demand further information to the client referring to the "deposit-guarantee scheme".

A document describing the main features of this protection system and the other steps taken by the Bank to ensure the protection of customers' financial instruments and funds is provided to each customer upon request and/ or is available on the website : www.agdi.lu.
